A founding shareholder of Mohr Hackett, Gordon believes in providing the highest level of client service possible. His beliefs drive the culture of the organization. The result: a long list of clients who trust Mohr Hackett and consider the firm partners for life. "I have at least 10 clients for whom I have provided legal services for more than 20 years."

Gordon's practice areas include real property law, commercial leasing, and business law. His representative clients include homebuilders, land developers, a supermarket chain, retail establishments and individuals, for whom he negotiates, among other documents, real property sale and purchase contracts and commercial leases.

Gordon has been active in the local legal community since 1963. For a number of years he served as Vice Chairman of the Fee Arbitration Committee. He also served as a Special Master (appointed by judges(s) of the Superior Court of the State of Arizona for the County of Maricopa) in real estate matters.

Aside from his clients, Gordon enjoys spending time with his children and grandchildren. He stays active by golfing, deep sea fishing and gardening.
