According to Jamey, "We practice partnership in action every day. The attorneys and staff members at Mohr Hackett respect one another, support one another, and help each other when necessary. It's a great place to work."

Insofar as her approach to client service, Jamey states, "It's great to be able to help people, that's what practicing law is really about. I particularly enjoy the personal part of working with clients who are growing their businesses." Her practice areas include general and civil litigation, as well as commercial litigation.

When not working, Jamey enjoys cooking and the outdoors. She is a regular on the firm's volleyball team and she will partake in anything that raises her adrenaline, including bungee jumping and skydiving. She also enjoys adventure travel and experiencing different parts of the world.
